

Descendants of Patrick (A) Coogan

1. Patrick (A) Coogan #295, b. 1820? in location unknown, possibly Ireland, occupation Area of Motherwell, d. prior to 1870 in Motherwell, SCOT.

He married Mary Murphy #296.

Children:

2. i. John (A) Coogan #236 b. 1849.

Second Generation

2. John (A) Coogan #236, b. 1849 in Wishaw, SCOT, d. 14 June, 1914 in Pittsburgh, PA. Information taken from Register of Marriages, 1861-1965, A 2912, in which John Coogan(s) married Margaret Coogan(s). John's mother was Mary Murphy Coogan(s). The father of Margaret Coogan(s) listed as Thomas Coogan(s) and her mother was Annie Keenan Coogan(s). Wedding of John and Margaret took place 10 June 1870 at Wishaw, parish of Cambusnethan, SCOT. In some of the records of 1873, the family name is spelled Cougan. This information verified from Scottish records (cf. scrapbook.)

John (A) Coogan first came to America from Wishaw, Scotland probably in 1903. Accompanied by his son James, they settled in Fayette City, PA and later sent for wife Margaret Coogans Coogan and remainder of family in 1904. They later moved to Turtle Creek, PA purchasing a house at 1022 Oak Ave. in Turtle Creek. There is some question as to the family's residence on Lynn Ave. for some time.

Mr. Coogan died in 15 June 1914 at Mercy Hospital, Pittsburgh, and buried 18 June 1914 in an unmarked grave in the All Saints Catholic Cemetery, Braddock Hills, PA, Division 6, row 5, grave 32. Death certificate and letter from Jobe Funeral Home (Turtle Ck) testifying to these details and found in Coogan-Quinn Family Scrapbook (CQFS).

Married June 8, 1870 in Wishaw, Cambusnethan, Lanark, SCOT, Margaret Coogans #360, b. 1852 in Wishaw, Lanark County, SCOT, (daughter of Thomas Coogans #248 and Annie Keenan #363) d. 30 August 1925 in Detroit, MI.

Margaret: Margaret Coogans Coogan married Thomas Coogan. It is unusual that both spouses had the same surname yet were from unrelated families. At times, the name was spelled Coogans but the "s" was dropped in time. Margaret died at the home of her son Thomas in Detroit on 30 August 1924; in attendance at the funeral were family and in particular son James Francis, his wife and son John Patrick who had come from Swissvale, PA.

It was later commented by Aunt Kitty La Londe that when Mrs. James Coogan died three years later no family representative from Detroit attended her obsequies, an event that annoyed the Pittsburghers to the extent that relations between the two families were broken off for about the next twenty-five years. It was also reported that Uncle John and Aunt Winnie had managed to obtain money from the Scottish bank in the name of their father John but did not share this with other family members, again causing dissention.

- vii. Catherine Coogan, #377, b. 12 December 1910 in Canonsburg, Wash. Co. PA.

Catherine "Kitty" La Londe and her sister Mary Heitman have been the Detroit links of the Coogan Family that migrated to Michigan in the second decade of the nineteen hundreds. Also, it was they who began the earlier research into the family's history gathering valuable information on the older generations but also on the numerous progeny that developed in that area over the years.

Kitty had many stories to tell. Her father Thomas took in great grandmother Margaret Coogan(s) after her husband John died in 1914. She recalls that Mrs. Coogan was very demanding and made life difficult for her mother until the former passed away in 1925. She was able to detail the split that occurred between the Detroit and Pittsburgh divisions of the family largely as a result of the seeming affront by the Detroiters' not attending the funeral of the wife of James Francis Coogan, Pittsburgh, 1927 although they had gone to Detroit for the death of James's mother. Further, she was aware that Aunt Winifred along with another brother had occasionally returned to Wishaw, SCOT reducing the savings left there by their father but not sharing these with other family members.

Aunt Kitty went to Scotland in 1980 and was able to obtain verified copies of birth and marriage licenses that authenticated the residence of the older Coogans in that country. Aunt Mary Coogan (Sr. Margaret Frances, SC) always kept in touch with the Detroit branch of the family and therefore in contact with Kitty and Mary thus preventing a significant break with an important branch of the Coogan clan.

She married Gordon E. La Londe #378, d. 1 November 1973 in Tecumseh, MI.

viii. Mary R. Coogan #379, b. 23 January 1913 in Canonsburg, Wash. Co. PA.

Married 31 August 1935 in Holy Redeemer Ch. Detroit, MI, Harvey G. Heitman #380.

ix. James A. Coogan #381, b. 8 April 1915 at Canonsburg, WASH. Co. PA, d. 13 January 1971 in Memorial Hospital, Southfield, MI.

Married 6 August 1939 in Holy Redeemer Ch. Detroit, MI, Mary A. Maloney #382.

x. Frederick Coogan #383, b. 4 June 1918 in Detroit, MI, d. ? 3, 1967 in Detroit Memorial Hosp. Detroit, MI.

(1) Married 30 July 1938 in Holy Redeemer Ch. Detroit, MI, Mary Kapinoski #384.

(2) Married 21 December 1957 in Michigan, Margaret Howard #385.

4. James Francis Coogan #346, b. 17 Oct 1875 in Motherwell, SCOT, d. 24 Jul 1943 in Pittsburgh, PA.

Margaret Callahan Coogan died of gall bladder trouble 11 November 1927 at the Pittsburgh Hospital. James had known Mrs. Ellen Shields, Swissvale, since she too had a daughter (Mary Agnes) in the Greensburg Charity Sisters by the name of Sister Gervase. A year after his wife died James married Ellen Shields on 28 November 1928 at St. Anselm's Church, Swissvale. This early decision apparently upset some family members to the point that Ellen was not well accepted by them. Especially affected was Sr. Margaret Frances; and while nothing was said in the presence of the younger family members' one could sense tension.

On the death of James, Mrs. Coogan apparently went to live with one of her children and nothing was heard of her.

(1) Married 19 July 1899 in St. Patrick R.C. Motherwell, Craigneuk, Scot, Margaret Callahan #353, b. 15 Apr 1881 in Wishaw, Motherwell, SCOT, (daughter of Patrick Callahan #178 and Bridget Callaghan #183) d. 15 Nov 1927 at Pittsburgh Hospital, 11 November 1927. Margaret: Margaret Callahan Coogan, wife of James Francis Coogan, and lived at Motherwell SCOT. While the names of her parents are known it is unclear at this time as to when the original Callahan or Coogan(s) came to SCOT, supposedly from IRE. Margaret married James F. July 19, 1899 St. St. Patrick's church in Motherwell. James came to this country in the company of his father and possibly another brother in 1903 settling in Fayette City, PA to work as laborers in the mines. Margaret came over in 1904 with John P. and Francis J. John P. often quoted his mother: one of these remarks was, "Aye son, now you will be a wee Yankee", as they entered the NY harbor for Ellis Is. Another comment was, "James, I'm not going to be a miner's widow, we are getting out 'o the mines." This remark prompted by the hard working conditions faced by the miners, frequent work stoppages, deaths, etc. At this time, they probably moved into Turtle Creek, PA where the men found work either with the railroads in Pitcairn and/or at the Westinghouse Electric Co. a large manufacturing plant.

Mrs. Coogan was always loyal to her Scottish roots, could sing their songs, recite poems from Robert Burns, and naturally spoke with a heavy Scottish accent. The family probably lived in with the senior Coogans (John and Margaret) but with the death of John in 1914, senior Mrs. Coogan went to live with her son Thomas first in Cannonsburg, Pa. and later in Detroit where she died. Margaret herself died November 11, 1927 at the Pittsburgh Hospital probably from gall bladder trouble.

Children:

He married Katherine (Kay) Rankin #189. Katherine: Kay married Uncle James Coogan (brother of John Patrick). Marriage did not last long, no further knowledge of Kay's later life. There were no children from this marriage.

(2) He married Ellen Shields #515.

Fourth Generation

5. John Patrick Coogan, #355, b. 1 June 1900, d. 6 June 1973 in Pittsburgh, PA.

Son of James and Margaret Callahan, born at Wishaw, SCOT, came to US aboard the Furnessia 16 May 1904 along with his brother Francis J and his mother, age four upon arrival. (Ellis Island On -Line). Family settled in Fayette City, PA but moved to Turtle Creek at 1022 Oak St. John attended St. Colman's elementary school where he probably completed 8th grade. He joined the Navy in 1917 and upon return lived with the family to their home at 2412 Woodstock Ave, Swissvale.

John's professional training was begun in a school sponsored by the Knight of Columbus where he learned the elements of drafting. He built upon these skills through further training at Carnegie Institute of Technology (now Carnegie Mellon University) which enabled him to move into the field of engineering design. While he did not receive, a degree from Tech this training plus working experience enabled him to becoming a career engineer. More information available in biographical sketch.

- iv Gertrude Ann Coogan, #337, b. 7 March 1938 in St. Francis Hospital, Pittsburgh, PA.

Gertrude, as the youngest by seven years, was the favorite of her father who called her "his hon'ya girl" or, "Daddy's little girl". While not playing favorites Dad had to show Gert special affection as she was often teased by her older brothers and especially Jimmy, seven years her senior.

GA attended Holy Rosary elementary, Sacred Heart HS '56 then went on to Duquesne University with a major in Education graduating in 1960. She took a position as elementary school teacher with the Pgh. Pub. Schs. at the Quentin Roosevelt School, Carrick. In 1963, she signed on with the US Army Military schools to "see the world". Her first assignment in 1963 was at Karlsruhe, Germany, and then in 1965, after a summer home, transferred to similar schools in Japan near Tokyo, August 1965.

Upon return from Japan in June of 1966, Gertrude came to Chicago staying with her brother Jack and family until she was taken on by the Oak Park schools where she taught for 28 years largely at the Mann, Longfellow, and Holmes buildings.

In the midst of these years, Gert met and married Howard Johnson July 3, 1976 at St. Luke's RC church in Lake Forest, IL. Howard, an accountant, conducted his own business in the area of tax reports for private clients. Unfortunately, Howard contracted cancer and died November 27, 1997.

Upon retirement from Oak Park Schools in 1993, Gert served for a time as independent consultant for AMES as presenter of programs in math and science for talented elementary level students. When in 1995 a position opened with the State of Illinois at West Forty Intermediate Unit she signed on as an independent consultant to organize teacher-training programs with specialties in reading and math. Here Gert worked with a broad spectrum of teachers from all the school districts of the Chicago metropolitan area. When there was an administrative change at West Forty retired from this position 30 June after 45 wonderful and varied years in the field of education. Who's Who in American Education inscribed her name in their register in 1989 "for her extraordinary skill and devotedness" in the field.

Married 3 July 1976 in St. Luke R.C., River Forest, IL, Howard Arthur Johnson #43, b. 17 Dec 1927 in Prophetstown, Illinois, (son of Elmer Johnson #141 and Verna Mae Burdsall #142) occupation Accountant, d. 23 Nov 1997 in Oak Park, IL. Howard: raised in Prophetstown, Illinois. First marriage to Arlene Pinc; one child Kevin, July 2, 1960 who later married Jean McCarthy, August 17, 1985.

Kevin had two children by Jean: Alexander David on June 3, 1986 and second marriage to Gertrude Anne Coogan, July 3, 1976. His early religious affiliation was with the Congregational church. Attended Bradley University, graduated 1954.

6. Francis (Frank) Joseph Coogan, #39, b. 4 Apr 1902, occupation sales representative, insurance, heating and roofing supplies, d. 29 Mar 1979 in Pittsburgh, PA.
 Frank Coogan married Mildred Connery at Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Church, Blackadore Ave, Blackridge, PA on June 17, 1929. They had one child, Mary Jacqueline (Jackie) Coogan who married Larry Ellis, MD. Frank worked with Mr. Fred Proie in the heating business but later went to Haller's bakery as salesperson and supervisor. He was let out of this position during the Depression then moved on to the Prudential Insurance Co as sales representative. During the mid-Forties he again linked up with Proie and together they opened a heating and roofing concern called Proie/Coogan. Their first shop was located on Penn Avenue in East Liberty and later on Broad St. where they had increased warehouse space. Their big sales were with the John Zink gas conversion burner (Pgh. was converting from coal to gas at this time) and Elaterite Roofing compound. In 1949, Frank gave young Jack Coogan a fancy Parker pen and pencil set for his graduation from the University. of Pgh. in 1949.
